Compact RF Filters Are Required

NEWS

Nokia has confirmed that it acquired Australian Mesaplexx to enhance the radio performance of its products in its Networks business. Mesaplexx offers advanced, high performance RF filter products for the mobile infrastructure industry, and Nokia plans to use the technology to build smaller, lighter, and more efficient basestations and small cells.

Why Filters Matter to Basestations and Small Cells

IMPACT

Vendors continually innovate to improve the performance of their basestations and make them smaller and more efficient. Many system components have already been successfully miniaturized or are on a miniaturization ...
